

Answer to question 8:

DP: That was ah, that was CSIRO's option there and the Minister's...

VoC: So they insisted?

DP: We weren't, we weren't involved in the consultation, that consultation process, we were engaged in the discussion on the terms of reference ah, but we weren't engaged and I don't know whether we had a great deal of knowledge about ah, you people's position and, you know, and how representative you were and who were the stakeholders. It was done with a view to the stakeholders coming along and talking to us after the event.
